
STC 22328 Titus Andronicus,

When Henry Clay Folger a unique quarto in 1904, it was of gray paper lined with Swed bills, all here preserved in nal order and position. The and the date on the bills mak probable that these covers we not long after 1770. Earlier first been stabbed and stitch at some time bound in a thick other matter.

A full account of the pr (whose names, written in the are now much faded) will be fo facsimile reprint by J. Q. Ada

When the Library first op probably when Folger first acq quarto, the wrappers were tatt the spine so that it was easy of the old sewing and a very t of paste remaining from the bo

By 1959 the volume began not only at the spine but in t and tender title. It was then that it should be preserved by The Folger binder (R. Lun the leaves gently, using no bl other chemical, and sized it w tion of gelatine and essigsaur